A photograph of a farmyard on a clear day. In the foreground, there is a gravel-covered area with patches of snow. To the left, a silver van is parked. In the center, a fenced-in area contains a doghouse and some equipment. To the right, a long wooden building with a tiled roof is visible, with a bicycle wheel mounted on its wall. A dog is lying on the ground near the building. The background shows a line of trees under a blue sky.
