Begynnelsen på å få sti fram til hundetanken. Tråkket ferdig litt etterpå - så nå er det lettere å få tømt hundemøkk i tanken igjen
