

A group of husky dogs are seen in a snowy enclosure. The dogs are of various colors, including grey, black, and white. They are standing on a snow-covered ground. In the background, there is a wooden building with a window and a large wooden wheel mounted on the wall. A snow-covered branch is hanging from a wire fence in the foreground. The text "Godt Nytt År" is written in large, red, stylized letters across the bottom of the image, and "fra Gokstadhaugen kennel" is written in smaller, red, stylized letters below it.
