A group of four people and several dogs are gathered on a gravel path in a wooded area. The people are dressed in casual outdoor attire. One woman in a white jacket is on the left, another in a purple plaid shirt is in the center, a man in a dark jacket is to her right, and a woman in an orange jacket is on the far right. They are surrounded by several large, fluffy dogs, likely Akita Inu, some of which are on leashes. A red and white striped caution tape is strung across the path. In the background, there are tall evergreen trees and a red building with a sign that reads "SPAREBANKEN SØR".
